[Vide answer to unstarred question No. 620 asked by Sri T. P. Elumalai at the meeting of the Legislative Assembly held on 25th February 1956, page 8 supra.]

(a) The scales of pay of warehousemen as follows :—

Government Press.—Rs. 35—2—55—EB—1—65 per mensem.

Government Stationerg Stores.—(i) Rs. 30—2—50 per mensem for warehousemen who have passed or studied up to S.S.L.C.

(ii) Rs. 24—1—35 per mensem for unqualified warehousemen.

The question of raising the scale of pay of qualified warehousemen in the Government Stationery Stores from Rs. 30—2—50 to Rs. 35—2—55—EB—1—65 as in the Government Press is separately under consideration.

(b) The duties of the above Government servants—

Gvvernment Press.—The warehouseman in the Government Press renders clerical assistance by maintaining certain registers prescribed to watch the receipt of strike orders, progress of striking work, and the arrears. He is the custodian of all files relating to strike orders and takes responsibility for avoiding delays in composing. He has to bring to the notice of the Gazetted Assistant in-charge through the overseer all cases of delays caused by machine-minders, compositors, readers, etc. He also assists the overseer by maintaining attendance and overtime registers.

Government Stationery Stores.—The warehouseman in the Government Stationery Stores is generally intended to check issue slips and pack stationery articles for the various indenting officers. Based on indents, he collects the articles from the stock section and godowns and packs them carefully. For this purpose, he prepares in triplicate a list of the articles supplied for being sent along with the railway receipt to enable the indenting officers to acknowledge receipt of the articles. In addition to this, he prepares credit notes for being sent to the railway along with the packages intended for booking. He maintains the registers for clearance of incoming and outgoing consignments and packing materials like planks, twine, etc., required for packing work in the stores. He also assists the Head Accountant by posting daily issues in the posti g register and in the departmental registers.
